Contact: David Traub, Norfolk DA's Office, 781-830-4800 x 217

John Cahill, 49, of Braintree was indicted this afternoon (October 1, 2009) in the collision that took the life of a Weymouth man out for a jog on August 22, 2009, according to Norfolk District Attorney William R. Keating.

A Norfolk County Grand Jury today indicted Cahill for Motor Vehicle Homicide by Negligent Operation, a misdemeanor punishable by 2 ½ years in a house of correction, for the collision that caused the death of James Zapkufska, a Corrections Officer for the Norfolk County Sheriff's Office.

Cahill was also indicted with the civil infractions of speeding and marked lanes violations for procedural purposes.

The Superior Court arraignment date on these charges has not yet been set, District Attorney Keating said.

As with all indictments, Mr. Cahill is presumed legally innocent until proven guilty.
